

End User License Agreement for Checkbook Inc. Software

1. License Agreement Confirmation

1.1 THIS END-USER LICENSE AGREEMENT (“Agreement”) IS A CONTRACT between Checkbook Inc. (“Checkbook”) and the individual or company, (“Licensee”) that is installing Checkbook software or a Checkbook software package (individually and collectively the “Software”) for use in conjunction with a Checkbook online service (the “Service”).

1.2 INSTALLING, DISTRIBUTING, OR USING THE Software, AND/OR INSTALLING A LICENSE KEY IF APPLICABLE, CONFIRMS LICENSEE’S AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND by all the terms and conditions of this Agreement unless Licensee and Checkbook have expressly agreed otherwise in writing.

1.3 Licensee will be bound, but not limited to, by this Agreement’s limitations on:

1.4 This Agreement applies to updates, supplements and add-on components of the Software that Checkbook may provide or make available to Licensee after the date Licensee obtains its initial copy of the Software, unless accompanied by separate terms.

2. License Grant

2.1 Licensee is licensed to use one or more specific items of the Software in executable form only, and only for use with the Service.

2.2 The Software is licensed, not sold. Checkbook or its supplier(s), as applicable, retain title and all ownership rights, of whatever nature, to the Software and to the tangible copy or copies of the Software. All rights not expressly granted herein are reserved by and to Checkbook or its suppliers, as applicable.

2.3 Licensee may use the Software in accordance with this Agreement solely for Licensee’s internal business use, specifically excluding service-bureau use or use as an outsourcer or other third party use, unless expressly specified otherwise in the applicable service plan for the Service.

2.4 Licensee may not use the Software except in accordance with this Agreement, nor permit or assist others to do so.

2.5 Licensee may not decompile, disassemble, or reverse engineer the Software or any part of it, nor permit or assist others to do so. If applicable law permits Licensee to engage in such activities notwithstanding this Agreement, Licensee will provide Checkbook with advance notice and reasonably detailed information concerning Licensee’s intended activities.

3. Limited Warranties; Exclusive Remedies

3.1 OWNERSHIP / NONINFRINGEMENT WARRANTY. Checkbook warrants to Licensee that Checkbook owns the Software or is otherwise authorized to grant Licensee a license, and neither the Software nor its use in accordance with the documentation, in and of themselves, will infringe any valid copyright or trade secret right, nor so far as Checkbook knows any valid patent right, of any third party. LICENSEE'S EXCLUSIVE REMEDY for any breach of this infringement warranty shall be to invoke the provisions of the Infringement Indemnity section of this Agreement.

3.2 PERFORMANCE WARRANTY. Software licensed under evaluation licenses and other non-purchased licenses is provided AS-IS, WITH ALL FAULTS and with no warranty.

3.3 VIRUSES, ETC.: Checkbook will make commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the Software will not contain any virus, Trojan horse, or worm, or other software designed to permit unauthorized access to, or to erase or otherwise harm, Licensee's software, hardware, or data. Licensee's EXCLUSIVE REMEDIES for any breach of this warranty will be for Checkbook to reimburse Licensee for all reasonable resulting "clean-up" damages to the extent that the damages would not have been avoided by prudent precautions such as, for example, regular backups; and at Licensee's option, to either replace the Software with a warranty-compliant version or cancel the License and refund Licensee's payment for its then-current subscription to use the Service, pro-rated as of the date License reported the breach.

4. Infringement Indemnity

4.1 If a third party (other than Licensee's affiliate) claims that the Software or its use infringes the third party's patent rights, copyright, or trade secret rights, then Checkbook will defend Licensee against the claim, at Checkbook's expense, and indemnify Licensee against any resulting court costs and damage awards, if any, provided, and on the condition, that Licensee promptly notifies Checkbook in writing of such claim;

does not make any admissions in respect of the claim;

gives Checkbook sole control of the defense;

does not settle the claim without Checkbook's consent; and assists Checkbook in the defense at Checkbook's request and expense.

4.2 At Licensee's option, Licensee may engage separate counsel, at Licensee's own non-reimbursable expense, to monitor the defense; if Licensee advises Checkbook that Licensee has done so, Checkbook will instruct Checkbook's counsel to provide all reasonable cooperation with Licensee's counsel for that purpose.

4.3 If

1) Checkbook so defends Licensee, but a court of competent jurisdiction nevertheless orders Licensee to stop using the Software as a result of the claim, and Checkbook is unable to have the order stayed or overturned on appeal, or

2) Checkbook settles the claim on terms that require Licensee to cease using the Software, or

3) Checkbook reasonably determines that Licensee should stop using the Software, then Checkbook will, at Checkbook's option and expense,

i) replace or modify the Software to make it non-infringing while still performing the same or substantially the same functions;

ii) procure the right for Licensee to continue using the Software; or

iii) if in Checkbook's judgment neither (A) nor (B) is commercially feasible, direct Licensee to stop using the Software and refund a prorated amount of the Licensee's paid subscription fee for its then-current license to use the service. Checkbook will not be responsible for any infringing use that Licensee may make of the Software after Checkbook directs Licensee to stop using the Software.

4.4 Checkbook's obligations under this Infringement Indemnity Section are LICENSEE'S EXCLUSIVE REMEDIES for any alleged or actual infringement by the Software or Licensee's use of the Software.

5. Disclaimer of Other Warranties

5.1 Checkbook DOES NOT WARRANT that the Software will be error free, will meet Licensee's needs, or will operate without interruption.

5.2 Checkbook DOES NOT WARRANT that the Software will perform as documented in cases of malfunction, misuse of the Software, modification of the Software by any party other than Checkbook (the foregoing shall not be construed as granting Licensee the right to make or have made any such modification), use of the Software with other software not described in the documentation, or bugs in other software with which the Software interacts.

5.3 Except to the extent (if any) explicitly stated otherwise in this Agreement, THE SOFTWARE IS NOT DESIGNED OR INTENDED FOR USE IN ENVIRONMENTS REQUIRING FAIL-SAFE PERFORMANCE, including but not limited to any application in which the failure of the Software could lead directly to death, personal injury, or severe physical or property damage.

5.4 On behalf of Checkbook and its suppliers, to the maximum extent permitted by law, Checkbook DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, DUTIES, CONDITIONS, OR REPRESENTATIONS (express or implied, oral or written), with respect to the Software or any part thereof, including without limitation any implied warranties, duties, conditions, or representations of title, non-infringement, quiet enjoyment, merchantability, fitness or suitability for any purpose (whether or not Checkbook or any of its suppliers know, have reason to know, have been advised, or are otherwise in fact aware of any such purpose), absence of viruses, results, workmanlike effort, or implied term of quality, whether alleged to arise by law, by reason of custom or usage in the trade, or by course of dealing.

5.5 Checkbook DISCLAIMS, for itself and its suppliers, any warranty, duty, condition, or representation to any person other than Licensee with respect to the Software.

6. Limitation of Remedies

6.1 Each remedy limitation in this Limitation of Remedies section is to be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law, independently of any other applicable remedy limitation, even if any particular remedy is held to have failed of its essential purpose, and also independently of the warranty-disclaimer provisions of this Agreement. Licensee acknowledges that otherwise Checkbook would not have granted the license on the economic terms associated with such grant.

6.2 To the greatest extent permitted by law, except as set out below, NEITHER Checkbook NOR ITS SUBSIDIARIES, PARENT COMPANY, EMPLOYEES, OFFICERS, DIRECTORS OR AFFILIATES, IF ANY, WILL BE LIABLE TO LICENSEE OR ANY PERSON CLAIMING THROUGH LICENSEE IN CONTRACT, TORT, OR OTHERWISE, FOR ANY INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, OR SIMILAR DAMAGES, arising from or relating to any alleged or actual breach of this Agreement or from the use of, the results of the use of, or the inability to use the Software, including, as examples but not limitations, lost profits or other economic loss, loss of privacy, loss of confidential information, arising from the use of, the results of the use of, or the inability to use the Software.

6.3 Other than in respect of Checkbook's obligation, where applicable, to defend and indemnify Licensee against third-party infringement claims, , to the greatest extent permitted by law, THE MAXIMUM AGGREGATE LIABILITY of Checkbook and its suppliers, subsidiaries, parent company, or affiliates, if any, to Licensee, or to any person claiming rights through Licensee, in respect of any and all claims arising from or related to this Agreement, in contract, tort, or otherwise, will be the aggregate amount of the applicable license fees (plus the initial maintenance fee, if applicable) paid pursuant to this Agreement by Licensee in respect of the Software.

6.4 Some jurisdictions do not permit limitation or exclusion of remedies under some circumstances, so some or all of the foregoing limitations may not apply to Licensee.

7. Export Controls

7.1 Licensee agrees that Licensee will not transfer the Software, or any other software or documentation provided by Checkbook, except in compliance with U.S. export-control regulations or other applicable export laws. (NOTE: transfer or disclosure to a non-U.S. citizen may constitute an 'export' even if occurring within the U.S.) For example, Licensee will not export or re-export any of the foregoing:

to any person on a government-promulgated export restriction list; or to any U.S.-embargoed countries.

7.2 Licensee represents and warrants that neither it nor any of its officers, directors, or managerial employees:

is listed in any export restriction list;
is a citizen or resident of any U.S.-embargoed country;
has had its export privileges suspended, revoked, or denied by a governmental authority having jurisdiction.

7.3 If Checkbook so requests, Licensee will sign written assurances and other export-related documents as may be required to comply with applicable export laws.

8. Pilot Programs; Beta Testing

8.1 This section applies if the parties agree that Licensee will participate in a pilot program or be a tester of the Software, e.g., for beta-testing.

8.2 Licensee's license for the pilot program or for the testing will be a limited-time license.

8.3 Licensee will advise Checkbook of any problems that Licensee encounters in using the Software. Checkbook will have the right to adopt, adapt, and/or use any ideas or suggestions that Licensee makes or give Checkbook relating to the Software, permanently and throughout the world, without compensation to Licensee. Licensee will provide Checkbook with reasonable information about the performance of the Software upon request.

8.4 Licensee may not, without Checkbook's prior written consent, disclose any information about the Software, its design and performance specifications, its code, or the existence of the pilot project or testing and its results to anyone other than Licensee's employees who are performing the testing.

8.5 The test period shall last from the date Checkbook delivers the Software to Licensee until Checkbook gives Licensee notice that the testing period is ending. Licensee's right to use the Software shall terminate at the end of the test period.

9. Other Provisions

9.1 The Other Provisions section of the Checkbook Terms of Service are incorporated by reference, mutatis mutandis ("with any necessary changes being made").
